

Family History event

We are teaming up with other East Midlands Family History Societies to celebrate the Family History Federation 50th Anniversary.

Venue – University of Nottingham, King's Meadow Campus, Lenton Lane, NG7 2NR

Convenient location off Nottm Ring Road

Open to the public from 10:00am to 4:00pm

Free admission and onsite parking

Wheelchair access; disabled toilet

Café serving drinks, snacks, lunch

Confirmed Exhibitors as at 29 Feb 24

Family History Federation (co-hosts)
Notts Family History Society (co-hosts)
Derbyshire Family History Society
Leics & Rutland Family History Society
Lincolnshire Family History Society
Chesterfield & District Family History Society
Nuneaton & N Warks Family History Society
Family Tree Magazine
Nottinghamshire Archives & Record Office
University Manuscripts & Collections *
Families in British India Society
Romany & Travellers Family History Society
Arundel Books (Alan Dance; Nottm author)
“A Few Good Women” Society

Outline Programme for the Day

Parking available onsite any time, ready for:

10:00	Doors Open; Welcome (FHF) Café open throughout event
10:30	Optional Manuscripts tour *
11:00	Talk: DNA for Family History
11:30	Hot lunch available (till 14:00)
13:30	Talk: Ancestors before 1600
15:00	Optional Manuscripts tour *
15:30	Closing comments (Notts FHS)
16:00	Public depart; Doors closed

 a half hour tour of the Manuscripts and Special Collections rooms is being offered; limited numbers; sign up at the University Manuscripts stall (first come first served)*

Starting from scratch? - you can benefit from Family History Societies with local knowledge and resources, and see what books and software are available to help you. Experienced and have hit a “brick wall” with an elusive ancestor? - come and get tips on how you can break through.